

May News

There are still places available on the art workshops being provided by Newton Abbot Art Group at the Jubilee Art Picnic on Decoy Field on the 3rd June. The two workshops are at 10.30am-12 Noon and 1pm - 2.30pm. Please book a place if you would like to attend.

Reminder: The deadline for submitting entries to the children's art competition is the 21st May. Please see the posters on your field notice board for details. All entries from members' children will receive an art related gift!

The Jubilee Picnic is open to members and their families from all fields and is from 1pm -4pm on Decoy Field. Hot and cold drinks and cakes will be available. To help us with the planning of the event can you please let us know if you are planning to attend the picnic.

Health and Safety: Advance Notice Parking on Decoy Field will be restricted to blue badge holders only on the day of the Jubilee Picnic.

Bug Monitoring: The Association is supporting Green Futures in connection with a Bug Monitoring Project in Bradley Valley. Green Futures are a local community group caring for the natural environment. As part of this project a limited number of places on workshops providing training on bug monitoring techniques and data collection are being arranged. If you are interested in attending a workshop or finding out more about this valuable project please contact us.

Vacancy: We still need an environmental officer. Please speak to your field manager or contact the Secretary if you would like more information on this vital role.

Date for your Diary: The AGM is on the 9th July at the Rec, more details to follow but if you have any matters that you would like to raise at the AGM please contact the Secretary.

Family Fun Day: On Sunday 21st August at the Rec. Trust in Newton Abbot one of our members Kerry who has a plot at Bradley and her two daughters (Tallulah and Autumn) are hosting a charity event in aid of Devon Air Ambulance and Cancer Research UK.

They have arranged a family fun day in memory of Kerry's late parents. She is looking for unwanted prizes for their tombola (for example unwanted presents, unopened family games and puzzles etc) and donations for the raffle. Kerry invites all members and their families to join the event.
