NADCAA News September 2025

2025 AGM – 19th July

The AGM was held as planned at the Courtenay Centre. Although attendance was somewhat disappointing, it was a very positive meeting. An excellent buffet provided by the Courtenay Centre was enjoyed by all. The committee and directors were confirmed, along with the 2024 NADCAA accounts.

25p Seeds - Bacon Butty and Seed Sale – 13th September, Decoy Field Shop

The final Decoy Bacon Butty morning will be held on Saturday 13th September at the shop between 10:00 am and 12:00 noon (weather permitting).

On the same day, the shop will hold an end-of-season seed sale, with many packets available for just 25p each. Members from all fields are very welcome to attend.

Gardening Book Library

As previously advised we're planning a gardening book library. The soft launch will now be on the 13th September at the Bacon Butty morning. Donations of books are very welcome—please bring them along or contact the Secretary. Volunteers to help with the project would also be appreciated and please email if you are interested.

Seed Processing and Packing Event – Thursday 30th October 7pm -9pm

Courtenay Centre, Kingsteignton Road, Newton Abbot.

All members are invited to come along and help process tree and plant seeds that have been collected this year. Bring your own seeds to process and donate to the Seed Library. No experience necessary.

This event is being organised by the Newton Abbot Seed Library. Any questions: NASEEDLIBRARY@NEWTONABBOTCIC.ORG.UK

Bonfires

Following the AGM, the Town Council has confirmed that bonfire rules remain unchanged: they may only be lit between 1st November and 31st March, after 4:00 pm and all rules in the Tenancy Agreement must be complied with.
