NADCAA News October 2025

Decoy Wildlife Area – Volunteers needed!

On Saturday the 1st and Sunday 2nd of November, maintenance is being carried out on the Decoy Wildlife area. If you love wildlife and would like to help, please come along from 10am on either day – if you are on Decoy and have a wheel-barrow please bring this with you as help is needed to move some stone for a new dry stone wall habitat. Members from fields other Decoy are also very welcome but please let us know you are coming and we can arrange to let you in the gate.

2026 Rents

The invoices for next years' rents will be sent out during the week commencing the 13th October. Please pay promptly and follow the instructions given carefully.

Bonfires & Bonfire Social Decoy Field – 8th November 6pm

Bonfires can be lit after 4pm between the 1st November and the 31st March.

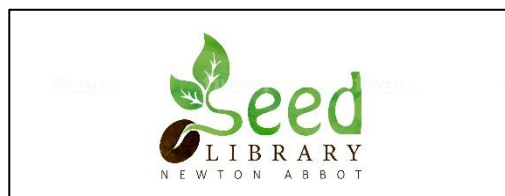

On the 8th November from 6pm there will be a social gathering near to the shop with a bonfire and if numbers are sufficient hot drinks and bacon butties can be available. This invitation is open to all members. If you would like to attend and would like food to be available please let us know by email so we have an idea of numbers.

Seed Processing and Packing Event – Thursday 30th October 7pm -9pm

Courtenay Centre, Kingsteignton Road, Newton Abbot.

As previously advised all members are invited to come along and help process tree and plant seeds that have been collected this year. Bring your own seeds to process and donate to the Seed Library, no experience necessary. If you do not have any of your own seeds to process/donate and are interested, please still come along as there will be plenty of seeds to process and pack. This event is being organised by the Newton Abbot Seed Library. Any questions : NASEEDLIBRARY@NEWTON ABBOTCIC.ORG.UK

These are exciting times for NADCAA and allotments in general, if you would like to find out more and might consider getting more involved, please contact the secretary using the email below.
